

Demons

WizTheMc

I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
So they can't tell if I'm here
I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
So they can't tell if I'm here

Tell me its real
Don't believe my eyes
Plenty fears still on my mind
They acting nice just for me to sign
But I don't sign
Guess that's a sign
Yea
Guess that's a sign

It's those signs I believed in
Stayed in on weekends
Believed I could pave my way
Just through breathing
Monks kept me awake for days
Haven't slept since
Not here by coincidence
You could call it practice
But its more than that
More than rap
More than anything
You ever grasped
No disrespect
I'm happy if
You got some shit to say
My mind is here to change
Practice what you preach
Yea
And you gon' find your place

I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
So they can't tell if I'm here
I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
So they can't tell if I'm here

Show your face
Don't escape
Don't run away
There's a place
I know you've got a ton to say
Don't leave
You can stay
Yea
Don't leave
You can stay here

And you can stay
That's no problem
Complicate my life
You can play with my problems
Obviously you right
You gon' say just to solve it
Got played
Now they take my deposit
Overseas
Too baked to acknowledge

That everything supposed to go
The way it goes
The way it goes
Everything supposed to go
The way it goes
The way it goes

I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
So they can't tell if I'm here
I see my demons scheming
Try to keep 'em
Far away from me
