

Do It Over

WizTheMc

When darkness turns to dawn
The birds sing our song
The first thing I liked about you
So far from where we started
Flight has departed
I can't ignore the way that this loving
Has turned me to a different man
So I'm waiting to begin again
I got daydreams with no end
I'll need some patience just to start again

And I would do it over again
No more hold ups
I will show up
And if we do it over again
I'll be sober
Put your weight on my shoulders

When darkness turns to dawn
I'm on my way home
Haven't seen you in like two months
Been sinking in my chair
And thinking if you still wear
My sweater that I left at your place
And maybe your different now
Are you aching to be reaching out
'Cause honestly I am
If I can change one thing
It's how it ends

And I would do it over again
No more hold ups
I will show up
And if we do it over again
I'll be sober
Put your weight on my shoulders

Ouuuuuuuuu
Ouuuuuhhh

And I would do it over again
No more hold ups
I will show up
And if we do it over again
I'll be sober
Put your weight on my shoulders

And I would do it over again
No more hold ups
I will show up
And if we do it over again
I'll be sober
Put your weight on my shoulders
