

Heart

WizTheMc

I'm not fooled by new rap
Wear dreads with no durag
Scrap that
I text back where you at
Got no dogs
'Cause I am that new cat
And I ain't even know why they left
It's getting cold on my neck
Need me some shows for this bread
Can you show me
How you cope with the past
Sometimes the most is less
And what's left is cold
Pockets swole
But the heart still broke
Love so unpredictable
But I stand tall
'Cause I'm like 6 foot 4
Before I get home
Need me like 6 more 0's
Mama on the phone
Sayin' ''don't let your heart close''

I won't
I won't
I won't

Don't let it close
Don't let it

I won't let my heart close
Sky's black just like charcoal
When your eyes open
And your hearts showing
Feel like I'm floating
Proves that
I won't let my heart close
Sky's black just like charcoal
When your eyes open
And your hearts showing
Feel like I'm floating
Proves that I

Floating through the sky
Looking for a cloud to land on
Before we know their name
We know their handle
Need me a close contact
Like an and 1
How to trust
When everyone got an angle
Everyone not the same tho
That's what we try to tell ourselves
But there's patterns
And they explain themselves
I'm just here to rap
Not to explain myself

If you want it or not
The pain will help
Time will tell if I'm right or wrong
So poetic
While I'm writing songs
Thinking way too much
When I'm alone
Shit
That's probably why I get stoned

Probably why
Probably why
But my heart
But my heart won't close
No No
It won't close

I won't let my heart close
Proves that
