I said I that I love it
I put you into my bubble
I'm praying that it won't burst
Always facing new struggles
I put that shit under the carpet
'Cause I don't want the trouble
I don't wanna see
What I did wrong with you
Now that I'm gone
How you feel
Blowing on strong
Just to kill time
I'm in my room
Hope there's still time
To find out why
To find out Why
To find out why
To find out

I wanted you to know
That you're all you need
I wanted to be close
But we both got dreams
I wanted you to know
That you're all you need
I wanted to be close
But we both got dreams

I blow up your phone when I feel stressed
No one at home
It's just me left yeah
It's back to work
'Cause I need rent
I'm back to work
'Cause I need cash
Yeah
Same same same old shit
Winter had me so cozy
I like roads that are lonely
Feeling cold like a snowflake
Tell me that it's okay
That it's okay

I know I been distant
Lately just been listening
To the voice inside of me
I guess I really missed it
Family paid a visit
Now I pay my dues
To pay them back in feelings
To pay them back a million

I wanted you to know
I wanted to be close
But we both got dreams

That you're all you need
I wanted to be close
But we both got dreams
