

Like That

WizTheMc

Stains on my shirt
Blood on my face
Chains on my neck
Tell me do you love me like that, baby
Do you love me like that?
You know I wish the best for you
And I hope you all good
Stop hiding from the world

Do you love me like that, baby?
Or is it all in my head?
I don't wanna go back to where I was before we met
These things don't seem to come around too often
Early morning coffee with the cream
Helping me see that it's okay the way it is Plenty more room in my head these days
Sick of all talk if they don't bring change
Baby, I won't want you in my own damn place
Don't care what you need to stay
I know this loving ain't healthy
Something inside me can't help it
Am I selfish just like you?
Or am I selfish like a fool?
'Cause I want you

Stains on my shirt
Blood on my face
Chains on my neck
Tell me do you love me like that, baby
Do you love me like that?
You know I wish the best for you
And I hope you all good
Stop hiding from the world

Who hurt my little baby? I can't wait till I see
The victimizer, I'ma break him down to his knees
The perpetrator, see him now and later
No fluff, I send faders, you deserve better
She got pain by her windowsill
Rain make the kiddo feel
Every single tear drops down, send a little chill
Can't let be bygones, can you heal?
Can't let be bygones, can you feel?

Stains on my shirt
Blood on my face
Chains on my neck
Tell me do you love me like that, baby
Do you love me like that?
You know I wish the best for you
And I hope you all good
Stop hiding from the world

Stains on my shirt
Blood on my face
Chains on my neck
Tell me do you love me like that, baby

Do you love me like that?
You know I wish the best for you
And I hope you all good
Stop hiding from the world
