

Nighttime

WizTheMc

Aye
I'm looking for signs
I'm staying inside
Got too many thoughts
And you still linger my mind
Caught up in all my feelings
Hope you feeling the vibe
Sometimes I wish I could put my feelings aside
Fear of missing out
And fear of giving in
With you I ain't missing nothin'
With you I'm living it
And now the picture been Painted differently
I guess my mission is
To find the visions in you
The truth lies
Behind your eyesight
This is my new life
My old one's archived
Counting my blessings
Can't believe they all mine
Don't worry
Everything be alright
Yeah Yeah
It be alright
Yeah
Everything gon' be alright
Yeah
It be alright
Everything everything be alright

You take off in the nighttime
We fake love in the nighttime
It's all numb in the nighttime
It's the righttime
In the nighttime
You take off in the nighttime
We fake love in the nighttime
It's all numb in the nighttime
It's the righttime
In the nighttime

I'm used to having my walls high
'Cause my trust low
I don't go outside
If I don't have to go
I let my flow decide
Breathe
Let my soul align
These niggas dumb
So am I
No need to lie
Uh
I'm done protecting my ego
View me as you want
I'm smoking blunts and it's legal

Kids into 66 sick shit
They flexing with evil
Industry full of addicts
They been craving a needle
I gotta give 'em something solid
Like we living medieval
I came all the way from Berlin to TO Badu turned my soul neo
Out the box cause I don't use no PO
Everyday a new beginning
Yea
I'm starting at zero

You take
You take

You take off in the nighttime
It's all numb in the nighttime
It's the righttime
In the nighttime
It's the righttime
