

Over The Moon

WizTheMc

Spending most my time inside my room
Whenever you come by, I make sure that you
Wanna stay another night or two 'cause
It's getting lonely without you
But it's okay 'cause I know
You are not too far from home
A couple blocks east, call before you sleep
Tell me what I missed when I was busy doing me, yeah

Feel like I am falling for you
Didn't ask me if I want to
Be in love, be in love
Be in love again

I'm over
I'm over the moon
For you
I felt myself
Fall deep into you
Into you

And this life be changing fast
Took a plane so I'll be back
Fell in love a couple times
But with you I feel like that
Could be over, I don't need no one around me beside you
You the fountain of the wisdom, I'm just here for all the truth
Set it off, I been telling you the truth 'bout how I feel
Tell me now is it love, or is it something in my dreams?
Yeah, is it something in my dreams?
Tell me now, tell me now

I'm over
I'm over the moon
For you
I felt myself
Fall deep into you
Into you

Feel like I am falling for you
Didn't ask me if I want to
Be in love, be in love
Be in love again

Feel like I am falling for you
Didn't ask me if I want to
Be in love, be in love
Be in love again

I'm over
I'm over the moon
For you
I felt myself
Fall deep into you
Into you

I'm over

I 'm over the moon
For you
I felt myself
Fall deep into you
Into you

I 'm over
I 'm over the moon
For you
