

Premature Love

WizTheMc

Told myself I'd read a book before nine, yeah
Walk the dog and do some cooking tonight, yeah-yeah
Maybe even watch a movie if there's time
But I got nothing done 'cause it's you that's on my mind

If I'm honest, I
Wanna call you mine
Only been a week but
I am sure inside

Premature loving
Why would we wait for anybody?
You can touch me, you can love me
You can love me

Cleaned my kitchen 'cause she 'bout to come by, yeah
Changed my shirt to something that she would like, yeah
Found myself at our dinner at nine
She asked if she could stay

I'm a sucker for something new
That's driving me crazy
I'm feeling confused
What should I do?
All I want is you, baby, baby

Premature loving
Why would we wait for anybody?
You can touch me, you can love me
You can love me
Premature loving
Why would we wait for anybody?
You can touch me, you can love me
You can love me

If I'm honest, I
Wanna call you mine
Only been a week but
I am sure inside

Premature loving
Why would we wait for anybody?
You can touch me, you can love me
You can love me
Premature loving
Why would we wait for anybody?
You can touch me, you can love me
You can love me
