Always running out of time
I told you the truth
Why would you lie to me
Why would you lie
But I told you I'm fine
Starting to find me some time
I'm starting to find me
To find me some time

I'm running out of time
Wonder where I can get it back
I wanted you and I
Guess it passed
Guess it just passed

Pardon my manners
I'm new to the scene
We just acquainting
You not in my team
Stick with the fam
'Cause there's too many fiends
Piff in my hands
'Til I'm really gon' leave
I just been stuck in the stu
I just been working
Feel like I improved
Now I be searching for shit that be new
I keep on running
'Til I got a coupe
And one for my mom
Guess that be two
Been on my shit
Ain't nothing new
But now they is calling
They want the lute
Now they is calling
'Cause they want the lute
Yeah

Always running out of time
I told you the truth
Why would you lie to me
Why would you lie
But I told you I'm fine
Starting to find me some time
I'm starting to find me
To find me some time

I'm running out of time
Wonder where I can get it back
I wanted you and I
Guess it passed
Guess it just passed

Guess it just passed

Running out of time
Cannot get it back
But its gon' be fine
If we stay on track
Come stay with me
For the time we have
Rely on me
Come ride my path
Yeah we stay free
No looking back
Pulled up on e
Probly need cash
And all the things that we done seen
Will always be stored in our past
Oh yea
There's no need to hold on
There's no need to hold
No need to hold on
No need to

Always running out of time
I told you the truth
Why would you lie to me
Why would you lie
But I told you I'm fine
Starting to find me some time
I'm starting to find me
To find me some time

I'm running out of time
Wonder where I can get it back
I wanted you and I
Guess it passed
Guess it just passed

Passed

Guess it just passed
