

Take Me

WizTheMc

Aye
I do what I can
And avoid what I can't
So it looks to everybody
Like I'm doing my best
Posting old tracks
While I'm still layin' in bed
'Cause in reality
I'm rarely working
I'm just in my head
Oh yea true I rap
Sometimes I just forget
'Cause my mind
Is not where theirs is I guess
And I'm not even mad
That I'm just that kid that naps mid-day
Way to baked
Okay
It's getting late
Uh
Running 'round the city
With some sage
'Cause the hate is
Way too much for me play with
Leave it or take it
But things take time
You could call it patience
Feeling way to impatient
For me to really take it in

Take me across the seas
For me to see
If all I know is real
Come take me, take me
Take me across the seas
For me to see
If all I know is real
Come take me, take me

'Cause I don't know what is real
And what really is not
If I start to think about it all
I'll end up with God
That relationship's established
Patience is the magic
Painted all my walls
So I can see that I can have it
My family's always backing
Shit that I was rapping
So nobody can tell me shit
I really made it happen
From my hometown
Made it over the seas
Playing shows everywhere
So my lyrics don't leave
Never thought that they'd care
And I still believe they don't

Only times I'm doubting that
Is when they up close
Singing all my lyrics
Like they the ones who wrote it
That's the real reason
Why a nigga still focused

Take me across the seas
For me to see
If all I know is real
Come take me, take me
For me to see
Come take me, take me
