

Take Your Time

WizTheMc

I love to fast I can't keep up
I fall in love with no keepers
I shine bright like a peacock
Smoking loud in your speakers
Had food for thought but I'm full
Let me just act a fool
No time for your bullshit
I just gotta fucking go
Yeah

Guess there's somebody
Out there listening to this
I paint the picture
'Cause it's real
I do not paint this shit for me
I paint the pain next to the killed
Now tell me what that mean
It's different fields
It's different meals
We consume
Oh please don't judge
Don't assume
'Cause you don't know
How I move
Oh you don't know what I do
Oh you don't know what I

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

But really what does it mean
Really what comes with this
No time on my wrist
I'm all mine
When I leave

No vent
So I write songs
No revenge
'Cause I love
No revenge
'Cause I love

No revenge
'Cause I love
(Somebody)

Yeah
Uh
There's more then I thought
There would be
More when my thoughts being freed
More when I feel that you here
More when I feel
More when I feel
I try to get real
I try to get under my skin
Try to uncover
The things that I did
That made me breathe
I'm taking leap
I'm taking a seat
Damn

Take your time please
Take your time
Take your time please
Take your time

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

Take your time
Oh take your time
I'm taking mine
I'm taking mine
I take the dark
And make it light
I take your smile
And make it mine

Realised that I gotta slow down

They don't know it but I've been around
I was told not to grow up too fast now
I find myself looking back looking back
Don't look at me
I've just gotta slow down easy
Maybe
I've just gotta take time for me

This was all a mistake
Feel like I'm awake now
Figuring everything out
What's good for me
Could you tell me

I was so high and then so low
I've got somewhere to go and so much to show
Think I've gotta be alone now
Don't need anyone around
