

Things Change

WizTheMc

Deceived by my own feelings
Now I'm gonna find out
What I really be feeling
'Cause there's more then girls, money, power
And buildings
Put my thoughts in your hifi
Tell me your feeling
Tell me you did it
Is you really 'bout business
'Cause I've been listening
See I'm not judging bout the Environment you living in
Just want me mine
And I hope that you get yours
But if you don't put the work in
You gon' always stay poor
What the fuck did you expect?
What the fuck did you expect?

No regrets
No regrets
No regrets

Things change
Have faith
Take breaks today
Can't fake
Things change
Have faith
Take breaks today
Can't fake

Change is coming
If you ready or not
Did Peter pick the pepper
The leaves or the pot
It's just a question
I don't really need all your thoughts
I feed em with God
I feed em with the shit they want
Yah
Never heard a german
Rapping like this
It happens to be
That I'm only seconds away
From the things they try to keep away
From the things they try to hide
From the things they try to keep away

What does it mean to be the key
To all these doors that are closed
Oh how could I know
Don't ask
Or maybe you should
Don't ask
Or maybe you should

Maybe you should

Things change
Have faith
Can't fake
Things change
Have faith
Can't fake
Things change
Have faith
Can't fake
Things change
Have faith
Take breaks today
Can't fake
Things change
Have faith
Can't fake
