

Thought

WizTheMc

Fell for the thought
Not really for you
I wanna love
Someone like you
It's been too long
Since we been cool
Am I wrong
For thinking about you

Easier said than done
And it's been like that
I'm writing down all my thoughts
And she into that, uh
What should I do
If I lose myself in this mess
I know there's more than
This fake life on the internet
I just wanted closure
Baby just come closer
I know there's people talking
But they do not know us
Got bottles just to pour some
Probably shoulda pulled up
But I don't like too many people
So I just stay sober
I just stay
I just stay sober
So I just stay sober

Fell for the thought
Not really for you
I wanna love
Someone like you
It's been too long
Since we been cool
Am I wrong
For thinking about you

Fell for the thought
Not really for you
I wanna love
Someone like you
It's been too long
Since we been cool
Am I wrong
For thinking about you

I don't try to cut corners
I like the scenic route
I like to take time
With everything
But now
I feel so different
Paradigm has shifted
Talking to God
All the blessings mean he listened

UUUUU

Mean he listened

UUUUU

Mean he listened

UUUUU

Falling to deep

I cannot speak up

I wanna hang sometimes

Like the leaves I see on the trees

I just want to be

Somewhere closer to me

Fell for the thought

Not really for you

I wanna love

Someone like you

It's been too long

Since we been cool

Am I wrong

For thinking about you
