Tap into my mind
Tell me if I'm really alive
You is the proof that there's a God
All this light got me blind
And all the stars got me vibin'
I cannot change your desires
Probably not even your tires
But I could tell by your eyes
Bigger pupils then on Molly
And everyday was a party
Maybe I told you too much
But I'm sorry, not sorry
Had too much dope to be smoking
You took the uber in the morning
I talked to God a lot
But I could have been fooled in the moment
So much pizza
That I still had food in the morning
Everyday
Smoking camels and drinking peroni
It was the First time I
Enjoyed not being lonely
Yeah
Really
Enjoyed not being lonely

Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here

New day
New wave
Still not getting paid
I didn't ask
But it happened anyway
Looking out the window
Can't believe its really winter
'Cause the summer felt like
It's gon last a couple more minutes

Daydreaming
Was daydreaming
Yeah
They seem to know

Who I am
But they ain't feeling
Nah
They ain't feeling
Eh
They ain't feeling
What I feel
So leave me alone
Yeah
Leave me alone
Leave me alone

Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
Changing Motions
Yeah
New waves clashing
Here
