

I've been waiting for this moment
Can't ignore that I am growing
Fam is calling
'Cause they know I spend most of my time alone
Never lonely cause I'm stoned
And my girl be home soon
Please don't tell me where to go
'Cause I feel like I'm doing the right thing
There's icing on the cake
Now they biting
'Cause I guess they like my take
Don't need a side thing 'cause she really be the one
Love apply it, I'm ready for a run, God
Got my back, can't fear what is ahead
I made it to this day now I'll make it to the bed
Gotta sleep, gotta rest
Then its back to the lab
If you ask, yeah it's me with the gas

Who, who, who
Who, who, who
Who is you?
I fall in love before you do
Who, who, who
Who, who, who
Who is you?
I fall in love before you-

Feelings like flowers, they growing in powers
Devoured my feelings to you
Tell me you feel it, you feeling the truth
There ain't no ceiling if you see it through
Come on, it's all written in the stars so I'm looking up
Everyone else already got
Everything they want, so I'm the only one still up
Still up
Still up

Who, who, who
Who, who, who
Who is you?
I fall in love before you do
Who, who, who
Who, who, who
Who is you?
I fall in love before you do

Who Who Who
Who Who Who
Who is you
I fall in love before you do

Who, who, who
Who, who, who
Now who is you?
