

Why Not

WizTheMc

Now I'm here, I know what to do
I'm painting my picture
And it's just a slight view of what I do
Keep painting the world
This world needs you
Why not do the shit you love
Don't give a fuck what people say
They's just acting dumb
I feel like they is numb
I feel like they can't feel nothing
Your emotions and your spirits
Nah
I don't see no limits
God
I look you in the eyes shit is vivid
Oh God
Let me finish
I'm doing it, so I know when I did it
Fuck the past, the moment is living
And don't forget to be grateful for what is given
I make my vision into a mission

They ask, why you do this rap
I'm like why not?
They ask if I want to take a toke
I'm like why not?
They ask why I don't give a fuck
I'm like why not?
They ask for some money
I got nada
Why not?
Why not?
I'm like why not?
Don't ask I got nada

Just do your shit how you feel like you like it
I like the walking and I like the driving
Nobody but you is your guidance
Don't ever give up, keep on fighting
Only rapping a year but it already sounds high end
Never had money for gear, but I kept on riding
'Cause I know my goals, they never fading away
I don't feel like quitting, I'm keeping the wordplays
When I slay words, acting like in a play
First mixtape, all in a day I just tryna explain
How I feel right now
I don't got no big fears right now
So better watch out
And some people still ask why you do this music
Why not, 'cause its amusing
And sometimes they just see no sense in it
'Cause then I can't have a good degree
And can't be living
Then they ask
Watchu gonna do if this rap shit fails?
I don't know but I got faith
I don't understand all those people hating

Like why not do the shit they is making
Why not do the shit you love
Why not do the shit you love
I know you really wanna live up
Here and now is the wrong place to give up
You got shit to say
You got shit to say
Don't let other people around you decide what to say
But if its so
Then you's in the wrong place
Why not say it?
Why not praise it?

They ask, why you do this rap
I'm like why not?
They ask if I want to take a toke
I'm like why not?
They ask why I don't give a fuck
I'm like why not?
They ask for some money
I got nada
Why not?
Why not?
I'm like why not?
Don't ask I got nada
