

Catch And Release

Wolf & Bear

I can't take it, I've never been this sore
I'm breakin', don't want you anymore
Where you at right now?
Where's she at right now?
Running around, always running around
While you're fucking around
I'm so caught up in my hate and doubt
That you're too busy to figure it out
Focused on the secrets you're choking down
Just keep hoping that it turns around

Soak up the sun, It's only warm for so long
Before the day drifts into the night
The sun won't rise tomorrow
And night will never fall the same

I can't take it, I've never been this sore
I'm breakin', don't want you anymore
Where you at right now?
Where's she at right now?
Running around, always running around
While you're fucking around

Tell me, was it worth it?
Tell me, was he worth it?
Will this pain ever end?
I did not deserve this
Tell me were you nervous
Shedding your skin in his bed
Got me feeling kinda empty
Never thought you'd try to end me
Can't believe I ever let you in my life
Now I'm filled with so much envy
Hating that you tried to mend me
You'll reap what you sow

Just let go, bless your soul
Can't believe you've grown so cold
Now your voice will never sound the same, yeah
Take a look around, does this make you proud?
You've been in his sheets, I'm begging you, please, just go
Take your soul, tainted soul, go

I can't take it, I've never been this sore
I'm breakin', don't want you anymore
Where you at right now?
Where's she at right now?
Running around, always running around
While you're fucking around
I'm so caught up in my hate and doubt
That you're too busy to figure it out
Focused on the secrets you're choking down
Just keep hoping that it turns around

Tell me, was he worth it?
Tell me, was he worth it?
Will this pain ever end?

Tell me, was he worth it?
Tell me, was he worth it?
Will this pain ever end?
