

CHAD B. KANG

Wolf & Bear

Saw it crawling
Moving slow in sight
Could it be right?
From a distance
But I can hear
Let me make myself clear
What if you never had to see me
For who I was
Hidden in shadows now
Head in the clouds

You think you want it?
You got it?
You don't
Hand shake with devils
No fire below

You think you want it?
You got it?
You don't
Hand shake with devils
No fire below

Oh lately girl
You don't want to come into my world
You don't want to see what I see
Oh baby when you fall you start spiraling

Slight of hand
Play the cards my way
When I twist the knife
Baby don't look away
Hand on my face like oh no
No hope
No shame and ain't got no logos
Sometimes you fall to a new low
Never come back the same

You think you want it?
You got it?
You don't!
Hell yeah
Perfect form as I hide in the smoke
Nothings free
Don't know what to believe
Burn a candle and watch it melt

Words start to twist
You always forget
Losing yourself when you never commit
Forgave myself
For all my mistakes
Letting go is a dangerous game

Oh lately girl
You don't want to come into my world
You don't want to see what I see

Oh baby when you fall you start spiraling

Oh baby girl
You don't want to come into my world
You don't want to see what I see
Then you would know everything

So fall asleep
Forget your maker
I am the soul that will grant you sleep
Cant feel your heart beat
You'll hear my whisper
Every time you feel your heart get weak
So fall asleep
I ain't your lover
But I'm still twisted up in your sheets
Cant feel your heart beat
I'm twisted up in your sheets
