

Always on the run
What good can come from that
Shooting at the sun
The arrows falling back

I just wanna let you know
What if embers lose their glow
So cold, no snow, go home, yeah
Please don't wake me up
That's all I ask of you

Honestly I'm sick of waiting
Hanging by a thread (hanging by a thread right now)
Indigo hue all around
The futures coming

No point in over explaining
Get out of my head (out of my head right now yeah)
Indigo hue all around
Oh, yeah
Indigo hue all around
I said oh, yeah

Every little thing I do for you
I never wanna let go, let go of you
Lately I can tell by the way you move
I just love those things you do
Nothing's holding me back

This conversation ain't holding
I thought I told you stay golden
Can't stop myself
There's nothing new to complain
Driving myself so insane (Fuck)

Back track, thinking it's a waste
Quick sand, right in my way
Can't stop myself

There's nothing new to complain
Without the torture and pain
Cleaning up all my mistakes
Gave up the ghost all in vain
Live in the moment?
I thought I told you stay golden

Every little thing I do for you
I never wanna let go, let go of you
Lately I can tell by the way you move
I just love those things you do
Nothing's holding me back

Every little thing I do for you
I never wanna let go, let go of you
Lately I can tell by the way you move
I just love those things you do
Nothing's holding me back

Call me up, don't be a stranger
Swear I'm never gonna find another mama that I adore, oh no
Call me up, I'm not your neighbor, no
But I'll leave you some sugar amor, yeah

Line them up, watch them fall
They wanna keep the high ground (they wanna keep it)
So they risk it all
What's the point?
There's nothing fucking new
Keep on falling for the bullshit
That is fed to you
That is fed to you
That is fed to you
That is fed to you
