

Lifeguard

Wolf & Bear

I can see you've changed, fluent with your gaze
Eyes tell a story that your mouth refrains
Fall asleep, in time you'll see
When was the last time you felt complete?

Shooting just to take a shot
Never found inside your thoughts
Devils dancing on the floor
Around, around the truth you can't ignore

You got me sending out an s.o.s
I have that empty feeling in my chest
If I wasn't off-track again
Trying to get to you
Trying to pull you through
Trying to pull you through, yeah
Follow me back, follow me back

If I could imagine the places
I'd disappear into without any traces
Slip through all the chains I'm embraced with
To love and let go, how long can you fake it?

Half-hearted stares pierce through this crowded room
So guarded I can't even speak to you, speak to you
I hope you make it back
Remove your disguise
There's nothing I can do
You're running out of time

Clear out, clear out, clear out your heart
Fragile and frail, it all falls apart
Eyes on the road, no hands when I steer
Clear out, clear out, clear

Wait, wait, wait
Don't let go
Hold on tight, we'll be fine
Save our souls

Can't take this, I'm thinking
Still caught in the river and sinking
Not enough air in my lungs
Pull me out, pull me out I'm done
The sound of your voice always calling me
There's too much poison without a remedy

You got me sending out an s.o.s
I have that empty feeling in my chest
If I wasn't off-track again
Trying to get to you
Trying to pull you through
(If I could imagine the places)
You got me sending out an s.o.s
(I'd disappear into without any traces)
I have that empty feeling in my chest
(Slip through all the chains I'm embraced with)

If I wasn't off-track again
(To love and let go, how long can you fake it?)
Trying to get to you
