

PAINTED LADY

Wolf & Bear

Did you get what you wanted?
Were you honest?
Broken promise

You don't even look my way
Let it out
When you live in yesterday
Waiting for the time your trusts betrayed
Maybe I'm an alarmist
Hard to be the one that never lets go

You don't even look my way
Let it out
When you live in yesterday
Baby you just let me down
Waiting on a new mistake
Never found
Ain't nothing left to say
If you wanna throw my love away

Let me know
Where to go
Getting cold
Overgrown

Now I see you
Forgetting where you're from
Fell through
Because you knew
You knew what this was
Forgot about us

Despite you
Forgetting where you're from
Fell through
How could you
You knew what this was
Forgot about us

Draw your line in the sand
Can't wash blood from your hands
Someone's gonna want to know who
When it bleeds through
Let it seep through

Telling lies to shift the blame
Never trust a thief with a safe
I don't even want to know you
Want to need you

Where's your spirit go
When you're out of hope?
In the dark and empty places you'll walk alone

Anything to dull the pain Mama
Give it up and walk away Baby
Nothings as it seems Honey

When you live inside a dream
Wake me up

You can't replace broken homes
Was blinded before now I see you
Forgetting where you're from
Fell through
Because you knew
Forgot about us

Despite you
Fell through
How could you
Forgot about us

Now I see you
Fell through
Because you knew
You knew what this was
Forgot about us

Despite you
Fell through
How could you
You knew what this was
Forgot about us
Forgot about us

Love
Do you need a little love?
Above
No one
Ever gonna measure up
Yeah they're watching from above
Above

Love
Do you need a little love?
No one
Above

Love
Do you need a little love?
No one
