

Baby Blue

Wolf Parade

You're like a fool on fire
To the water so blue
I will come undone
And I will run to you

Sometimes we are an open flower
Sometimes we are an open wound
Sometimes we are a kind of echo chamber, wherein You're all fire and brimstone
And I'm all that too
Burning blue for you

Take me back in time
Back to Montreal
Slow dancing by the kitchen table

And take me back to [?] Island
Where I sing for you
Like a fool on fire
To the water, so, to the water so

True blue (true blue)
And there is something like a tidal wave come my way
True blue (true blue)
And we are digging in the sand [?]
True blue (true blue)
And there's a nautilus curve, but we can call it a [?]
True blue (true blue)
I heard the island's all right if you're looking for a grave

Burning blue for you
Burning blue for you
Burning blue, it's true
Baby blue

Burning blue for you
Burning blue for you
Baby blue
