A Thief Inside

Wolf

I am a beast inside, a thief inside
A veil before your eyes distort your sight
Sneak up behind you just to hold you tight
As I steal you away

Manifestation of an ancient gene
It's you and me, this is our destiny
I cast the shadows that block the sun
To conceal the beast

A snake in your mind
Sneaking around
Stealing your dreams
A thief in the night
Seducing you
Stealing your dreams

I make what's clear appear obscure
Present obscurities to be the cure
Fill you with poison, make you beg for more
From my never ending well

A snake in your mind
Sneaking around
Stealing your dreams
A thief in the night
Seducing you
Stealing your dreams

You and I are chained together since forever
We'll go down in flames together eventually
You and I deserve each other
Bound to kill one another
I orchestrated your destruction when you created me

I am a beast inside, a thief inside
A veil before your eyes distort your sight
Sneak up behind you just to hold you tight
As I steal you away
