

Midnight Hour

Wolf

In the midnight hour
I listen for the rain
When sleep escape me
I listen for the rain
In the midnight hour

In the midnight hour
I can't find rest
My bed's on fire
And I need the rain
In the midnight hour

Nightmares have lost their thrills
But nightmares keep me company
In the midnight hour

The silence is merciless
There is no peace
Until I hear the rain
In the midnight hour

I'm Looking for something inside
Within myself, something to ease the pain
In the midnight hour

Nightmares have lost their thrills
But nightmares keep me company

In the midnight hour
I listen for the rain
When sleep escape me
I listen for the rain
In the midnight hour

The silence is merciless
There is no peace
Until I hear the rain
In the midnight hour

Nightmares have lost their thrills
Nightmares!

Nightmares have lost their thrills
But nightmares keep me company
In the midnight hour

The midnight hour

The midnight hour
Midnight!
