

The Raven

Wolf

I am the raven that circles around your head
Receive my transmission, subliminal message
My wings embrace you so my eyes can trace you

I'm engineering your lucid illusions
You swallow, you follow my slightest suggestions
I'm in your pocket, but you're in the palm of my hand

If you saw what I see, if I gave you my eyes
If I let you in on a secret to open your mind
Do you see what I see, my secrets and schemes
Can you see the raven that circles around your head?

Concealed is the raven that circles inside your head
Repeat my transmission, subliminal damage
Let my wings embrace you, I'm already inside you
You
Inside you
Inside you
