

Exhortation

Wolfbrigade

I'm bored and tired listening to your crap about an aryan leadership, a superior race.
You want me to agree but I got different plans it involves your demise and an end to your lies

History never repeats itself
But you open your mouth again and again

You try to win ground with fake statistics your dreams are built on shaky foundations A house of cards ready to tumble Never again shall that spectre arise

History never repeats itself
But you open your mouth again and again
Time to shut up!
