

Anthems of Revenge

Wolfchant

Eye for an eye
That is all I'm yearning for
Tooth for a tooth
Vengeance is mine
My ancestors
Will guide me through
The foreign lands
Intone
My anthem of revenge

Shadows
Of the past are here
Companions
Through the darkness
They haunt me
Through my sleepless nights
And agonies
Of dreams

I hear their whisper
In the wind
Whenever there is silence
I see your face
Before my eyes
When I try to sleep

You made me
What I am today
Revenger in the shadows
When once I was
An honored man
With glory on my side

Grind the soil
Between my hands
I will not rest
Until the end

Eye for an eye
That is all I'm yearning for
Tooth for a tooth
Vengeance is mine
My ancestors
Will guide me through
The foreign lands
Intone
My anthem of revenge

You betrayer
Eye to eye and face to face
You deceiver
You shall be damned
My desire
Hunt you down
By my own hands
Learn you
My anthem of revenge

I'm on your track
Through foreign lands
I feel
I'm getting closer

I read your marks
No force on Earth
Can save you now
No fortune
And no splendor

I repudiate
You are my king
You preach of death
And evil
Your reign of terror
Has to end
Now let me be
The one

The one who sends you
Down to hell
I won't rest
Until the end
You'll stare
With empty eyes

Grind the soil
Between my hands
I will not rest
Until the end

Eye for an eye
That is all I'm yearning for
Tooth for a tooth
Vengeance is mine
My ancestors
Will guide me through
The foreign lands
Intone
My anthem of revenge

You betrayer
Eye to eye and face to face
You deceiver
You shall be damned
My desire
Hunt you down
By my own hands
Learn you
My anthem of revenge
