

Bloodwinter

Wolfchant

With these words the reaper comes
The world is covered with decay
Dark and evil tongues tell us all these lies
But they're wearing masks, demons in disguise

Is there nothing we can do?
Is there a way to solve our lives?

Bloodwinter
Dead souls cast in ice
No more chance to fight
And all hope dies
Bloodwinter
Despair in ice and snow
Sinister surrounds us
No way to go

With all these lies death will come
Broken bodies lay scattered at the ground
Corrupt political plans cut wounds into the skin
Nobody can stop the man with gold in his mind

Is here someone who can help?
Is there a way to stop this war?

Since thousands of years we bring desolation and death
Since the beginning of time we tell you lies
Since thousands of years we bring agony and pain
Since the beginning of time you are our slave
And we are the war

They preach peace and lead war
They kill their brothers for some land
There is no truth and no grace
Profit is the God and spoil the follower
