

The Last Storm

Wolfchant

The last storm, it is rising
Blow away the scum from Earth
The stars, they will collide
We are sunken in eternity

Rolling thunder
Shining flashes
Breaking ground
Mountains of fire
Mankind crying
All signs ignored
Darkness surrounding
As it was foretold

Ignored for all the years
Ridiculed and not feared
The tribute we have to pay
We have to pay

The last storm, it is rising
Blow away the scum from Earth
The stars, they will collide
We are sunken in eternity

The gods from ancient times
Appeared out of the stars
They were of humankind
Left traces in the Earth

Blow away
The scum from Earth

Ignored for all the years
Ridiculed and not feared
The tribute we have to pay
We have to pay

The last storm, it is rising
Blow away the scum from Earth
The stars, they will collide
We are sunken in eternity

The last storm, it is rising
Blow away the scum from Earth
The stars, they will collide
We are sunken in eternity

The last storm, it is rising
Blow away the scum from Earth
The stars, they will collide
We are sunken in eternity
