

Wings

Wolfsbane

I stare up from the bed
And wish that I was dead
Instead of lying with you in
This house that's like a tomb
I should be somewhere new
A few frontier or new horizon

Now! Now I've got to get away
Now I've got to walk away
Find the words I've got to say
Finding the strength to
Walk like I talk and walk away from you

If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly away forever

In my dreams I'm not with you
Like an eagle in the news
Like a coward when the truth is broken
In my new reality
I hold all the keys
I decide which does open

Now! Now I've got to get away
Now I've got to walk away
Find the words I've got to say
Finding the strength to
Walk like I talk and walk away from you

If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly away forever ... forever

In my dream the window smashed
When the dirt, the broken glass
Shows me the reflections of dead faces
Midnight speaks of blood and pain
Breath of hope that turns to chain
I've taken nuff, I slice away all my hatred

Slice away the girl and
Dare, never had the chance
I will try to cry an ocean
Waves that I tend be tall
Crush against the shore
Onto the rocks of my emotions

But now - Now I've got to get away
Now I've got to walk away
Find the words I've got to say
Finding the strength to
Walk like I talk and walk away from you

If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly away forever ... forever

If I had wings I'd fly
If I had wings I'd fly
If I ...
I'd try!
