For you I'm bleeding

Wolfsheim

Here I am

Darkest night is masking the cold
that embraces me

Can't you see truth means fear Your lying breath never will resist

Alone I sit here waiting Watching the world in it's agony

Because I have seen my future
my crying face
No cure I'm longing for

And no healer heals the evil I sought truth for you condemned to fail

For you, for you I'm bleeding
And every new dawn ends in bitterness ...
