

You just want to tell them that you made me
Why don't you go on and make another one
I don't even feel the way you're feeling me
Only way I feel is when that money come... (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Smoking on my pain now... and I'm tryna find a way out
And I just tell myself it ain't true
Wrists bleeding but it ain't blue

And I'm crashing down
I'm falling, I can't breathe and now I'm blacking out
I'm falling, I can see it, my life flashing now
(My life flashing now)
Because of you
I'm crashing down
I'm falling in emotions and
I'm drifting in this opening
Voids again
Sinking in

Sipping on this Hennessy yeah
I don't want your bitches, no I don't
But I know all your bitches want me
But I can't really relate to y'all niggas
Cause I can't really fuck with none of y'all niggas
Tell me if I'm trippin' if I'm dumb
All I really feel is super numb
I'm just really here to have some fun
Just pop that champagne 'til it's done
I don't wanna be here no more
It's hard to see that shit while I'm smiling
But it's okay I'm real good at smiling
On that fake shit
I'm finessing always, nobody know what's poppin' nigga
I'm real good company but they be telling me I bring the misery out
Is that what y'all really thinking now?
Nah y'all can't make me lose my mind
Get right or get left behind
I know that I'm good for you, I know that I'm good enough
I don't have a heart left, I'm heartless

And I'm crashing down
I'm falling, I can't breathe and now I'm blacking out
I'm falling, I can see it, my life flashing now
(My life flashing now)
Because of you
I'm crashing down
I'm falling in emotions and
I'm drifting in this opening
Voids again
Sinking in
