

I have been soul searching lately
You don't come real to me baby
Lately it's you who's been switching up on me like ocean waves under a full moon
Can't even look in my eyes
Always them vs me and mine
But really you're wasting my time
I was about you from 9 until 9
Infatuated with killing my vibe
You called it love
I called it no trust
You called it real
I called it no us
Funny how worthless
You made me feel
I know where my worth is
But right now
I only need me
I only need me
I only need...

It's so easy for you to drink away problems
Head in the clouds tryna smoke your way out it
It's like when summer is over you discard all thoughts of me
Like you don't remember loving me
Lets reminisce
You always told me
You were ROD
Day one, a soulmate, a lover, a homie
When she switch up and start tripping
Don't call me
Cause I won't pick up
I won't pick up
Say I won't pick up
I won't pick up

Baby girl I wanna drink and waste time
Either you staying or you not mine
I don't want no 9 until 9
I just want to get it, without even trying

You adore wasting time
You only wanna drink
You're inhaling these clouds to forget about me
You're inhaling these clouds to forget about me
