

The Breach

Wolverine

Blinded private eye who follows
Dead-end leads through empty alleys
(Through empty alleys)
Picking up where it must have ended
Only to find the traces covered
(All traces covered)

A clandestine operation
Undercover
Way down, down below the flow
(Oh, way down below)

Stalk through unremembered landscapes
Running back to recover the internal fire
Still this hunger, still these chains
This darkened sun remains

Reaching back in time and space
To erase tomorrow to learn anew
(To learn anew)

Victim of a machination
Turning over - a shutdown to end the show

Descend toward the source
But afraid to breach its walls
All but a visitor at home?
A paralyzed stranger
Lost

Stalk through unremembered landscapes
Running back to recover the internal fire
Still this hunger, still these chains
This darkened sun remains

Stalk through unremembered landscapes
Running back to recover the internal fire
Still this hunger, still these chains
This darkened sun remains
