

DEATH CLOCK

Wolves At The Gate

Death clock spinning along in my mind
Death clock spinning along in my mind
Can You hear me now?
My clock is ticking down
In the back of my head

Tick tock fatal clock in my nightmares
But I'm wide awake
Still I am wide awake
Heart shocked and deadlocked in its crosshairs
As I start to shake
Still I am awake

Time slipping away
Time is slipping slowly away
Dissolving to dust
Slipping away
Time is slipping slowly away
It scares me to death

Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time
Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time

I'm so lost
No feelings
Everything is numb and I'm spiraling
Face the cost
What it brings
Everything is numb till I feel the sting

Ticking down as I fall
I collapse under the weight
The weight of my mortality

Slipping away
Time is slipping slowly away
Dissolving to dust
Slipping away
Time is slipping slowly away
It scares me to death

Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time
Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time

I'm so lost
No feelings
Everything is numb and I'm spiraling
Face the cost
What it brings
Everything is numb till I feel the sting

Death clock spinning along in my mind
Death clock spinning along in my mind

Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time
Death clock spinning along in my mind
Watching every second and stealing my time

I'm calling for You
Can You hear me now?
I'm calling for You
My clock is ticking down

I'm so lost
No feelings
Everything is numb and I'm spiraling
What it brings
Everything is numb till I feel the sting

Time slipping away
Facing my mortality with every breath
Time slipping away
Take away the sting of death
