

Out of Sight

Wolves At The Gate

Piercing eyes into a dark unknown
See what's hidden there
(And I'm) terrified by beauty there enthroned
Emptied and laid bare (Oh save me)

No! I'm fallen and alone
I'm fallen and I'm fallen and alone

Take it away
Because I cannot bear to see it again
My heart can't handle all the guilt in my life
Oh will you put it out of sight
Put it out of mind
Out of sight

All my life is set before my eyes
Every thought and deed
(And I'm) paralyzed by everything revealed
Desperately I plead "Oh save me"

Though, I'm fallen and alone
I'm fallen and I'm fallen and alone
Oh save me

Take it away
Because I cannot bear to see it again
My heart can't handle all the guilt in my life
Oh will you put it out of sight
Put it out of mind
Out of sight
Out of sight

Oh just take it, take it from me!

Take it away
Because I cannot bear to see it again
My heart can't handle all the guilt in my life
Oh will you put it out of sight
Put it out of mind
Out of sight

Taken away
Because I couldn't bear the weight of my sin
You took the shame and all the guilt in my life
Oh You have put it out of sight
Put it out of mind
Out of sight
