Wondermints

The dream is over there you've heard somebody say
You won't believe it till you feel it's a part of your fate
Forever in an alpha state
Can't live without 'em and that's what I've got to face
Hey, don't tell me different 'cause I know what you'd do in my place
Just watch the great subjective film you can't erase
Dream, make a wish, say your piece, don't be sorry
Dream, make a wish, save a piece and just call me
All the dreams are over here among the ones you wake
The only difference is the same to the ones that you fake
Who's ever in the mood you make?
Let's split an atom or just dig a doughnut hole
We can ask the monsters who reside just an inch of our soul
To play the great collective film, you've gotta role
Dream, make a wish, say your piece, don't be sorry
Dream, wishing well, say a prayer ,and you fall in
And you fall in, and you fall in, and you fall in
You've got the stars, you've got them sprinkled in your eyes
No doubt about it, they will burn off the head that you prize
And melt the great objective film you shot outside
Dream, make a wish, say your piece, don't be sorry
Dream, wishing well, say a prayer, go in pieces of starry
Dreams, wishing wells, say your prayers, and just fall in
And you fall in, and you fall in, and you fall in
