

Somebody

WONHO

I'm falling to pieces
Wide awake, but I'm barely alive
Let go of the sadness
And the burden that's holding me back

Now, I'm running out of time
Runnin' out, runnin' out, runnin' out of time
I pray to God, oh, every night
Take me back to where I belong

'Cause every night I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, need somebody
Shut my eyes run away from it all
I need somebody, need somebody

I need a shoulder to lean on
I need someone to hold
'Cause every night, I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, somebody

I'm hearing nothing but silence
Everything around is dragging me down
Look myself in the mirror and I know

I know I'm running out of time
Runnin' out, runnin' out, runnin' out of time
I pray to God, oh, every night
Take me back to where I belong

'Cause every night I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, need somebody
Shut my eyes run away from it all
I need somebody, need somebody

I need a shoulder to lean on
I need someone to hold
'Cause every night I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, somebody

I'm all alone in the world full of strangers
Blank faces staring I'm patiently waiting
I need someone to hold on
Take me back to where I belong

'Cause every night I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, need somebody
Shut my eyes run away from it all
I need somebody, need somebody

I need a shoulder to lean on
I need someone to hold
'Cause every night I'm alone in the dark
I need somebody, somebody

I'm all alone in the world full of strangers
Blank faces staring, I'm patiently waiting
