Suicide Cargoload (Drag That Weight)

Woods of Ypres

```
Drag that fuckin' weight, man
Drag that weight and breathe
Pull that fuckin' anchor across the rocks
Push that mountain into the sea

Drag that weight
Over foreign landscapes
Drag that weight

Drag that fuckin' weight. man
Drag that weight and breathe
I ache, I moan
I'm hurt, I'm weak

Drag that weight
Over foreign landscapes
Drag that weight

Like a ten ton stone statue
Standing before miles of mountains
In a foreign land
Where you don't speak the language there
Like a ten ton stone statue
Standing before miles of mountains
In a foreign land
Where you don't speak the language

I feel so heavy, man
I feel so heavy, man
So I drag that weight
And I drag that weight
Over foreign landscapes

Drag that fuckin' weight, man
Drag that weight and breathe
Pull that fuckin' anchor across the rocks
Push that mountain into the sea

Drag that weight
Over foreign landscapes
And I drag that weight
Slow and heavy
```
