

Just What I Need

Wouter Hamel

headaches pass heartaches never do they hang around and wait for someone new someone naive enough to believe this time it's for real break-ups hurt time and time again there's just no way of getting used to them makes it harder to believe next time it's for real baby you're just what I need just what I want

while I know for a fact that it won't last long you'd better get out
while you still can

the city sleeps but I stay up all night I sing along to bluesy heartbreak songs
next time is for real

but if you're not impressed with a broken heart I suggest you stay though it might seem I have lost all hope I've got nothing left to lose I can easily be persuaded and fall in love with you

I'd better keep trying while I still can
