

Little Boy Lost

Wouter Hamel

where have you been?
so hard to fly with hand me down wings
silly mistakes
on a sad and sorry day
sure is hard to fly
when there's nothing left to say

little boy lost
where will you go?
you'll soar through the sky in the afterglow
but when you'll awake
in this godforsaken place
must be hard to fly
when you just can't find your way
'cause it sure is hard to rhyme

little boy lost
when will you see?
all you could learn
and all you could be
silly mistakes
on a sad and sorry day
when you just can't find your way
sure is hard to rhyme
