

Lohengrin

Wouter Hamel

when we were young and restless, dear we used to drink away our fear the border can't be far from here don't blink your eyes - I'll disappear don't paint no pictures in the sky I'd stay inside and let them pass me by the border can't be far from here

take me there, oh Lohengrin!
there's still a little time left I've tried to get some answers here but nothing seems to go right so don't blink your eyes if only you could see me through you'd see that I'm not made for you

the border can't be far from here

oh, my sweet Lohengrin!
I'm back to see you in my dreams
