

The Lights

Wouter Hamel

You can wait such a long long time for me or the version you have of me I've been trying I've been trying to get a little bit of love

You remind me of a younger better me with a sense of catastrophe I've been trying - we're all trying to get a little bit of love

When the lights started flashing and the room started shaking
oh and all you know comes tumbling down again

I've been hiding, been hiding in the plain sight that's somewhere to be tonight
I've been hiding, I've been hiding from the bright lights

I remind you of a lighter prider you I'm stuck in the middle with you I've been trying to get a little bit of love

When the lights started flashing
oh and all you know comes tumbling down again

Do you remember that summer the pain wouldn't end we couldn't imagine us being friends again
