

Useless Fraud

Wouter Hamel

I can't see why
I can't see how you ruined us
and took it all
my fantasies
my reveries are hiding deep within

you worthless fraud
you ugly cheat
I trusted you
look at me now
my days are grim
my nights light up
with useless memories

your features so bedazzled me your charms
your poise
your pedigree
your eyes translucent and bright till I found you out one night

I'm a shadow
of myself
I once was one
but now I'm half
the wedding bells
have died away
and I'm left alone

have died away
and I'm left here all alone
