Closure

Wrabel

8:04 in the mornin'
Late for work, shut the door
And it hurts me, I can feel it
Maybe you don't

Gettin' good at ignorin'
Little words, little words
Little warnings, I can feel it
Maybe you don't

One of us gotta man up
One of us gotta stand up
And say somethin', tell the truth
Yeah, yeah

One of us gotta man up
One of us gotta stand up
But my mind shuts when I look at you

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over
I'm callin' it closure

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over
I'm callin' it closure

Think you know it was comin'
You were too insecure to say somethin'
That you're feelin'
'Cause maybe I don't

And you blame it on one thing
Doesn't work, didn't work
It ain't worth it, tryna fix this
'Cause you won't

One of us gotta man up yeah
One of us gotta stand up
And say somethin', tell the truth
Yeah, yeah

One of us gotta man up, hey
One of us gotta stand up
But my mind shuts when I look at you

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over
I'm callin' it closure

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over, yeah
And I'm callin' it closure, yeah

Well I'm callin' it over, hey
And I'm callin' it closure

And love's on the other side of you
So what am I so afraid of?
What am I so afraid of?
Love's on the other side of me
So what are you so afraid of?
Everybody breaks up

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over, yeah
And I'm callin' it closure, yeah

It's better to lose and love again
Just let it end and start again
I'm callin' it over, yeah
I'm callin' it closure
