lost cause

Wrabel

Is it me
'Cause I know that you noticed
I hate kissing you with my eyes closed
I keep 'em open and stare at your face
Making sure that your eyes close
Cos I was never taught to trust somebody, nobody

Or is it you
'Cause you pushed all my buttons and Turned yourself into a trigger
And it feels like I'm stuck at a party without any liquor
And now the music stopped and were not dancing
There's no dancing

Oh oh oh
Throw your sticks and stones at me

But don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Say you're sick of my guts
But don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Tell me I'm a loser
Tell me I'm a stranger
You don't wanna see again
But don't tell me I'm a lost cause

I'm a bitch
A possessive and jealous love addict
But boy you're an asshole
And I'm tired of thinking that tragic's romantic
It's bad hope
If all that's left to do is leave
Don't twist your knife as you're walking away
You could end lives with the words that you say

Oh oh oh
Throw your sticks and stones at me

But don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Don't tell me I'm a lost cause

Say you're sick of my guts
But don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Tell me I'm a loser
Tell me I'm a stranger
You don't wanna see again
But don't tell me I'm a lost cause
Don't tell me I'm a lost cause
