

surrender

Wrabel

Head spin
I dive into the blue
My skin
A dotted line for you
I bend to the point of breaking

To you I surrender
To you I surrender
To you I surrender
To you I surrender

Light flicker
I'm crawling up the walls
Air thicker
Than the rain before it falls
I bend to the point of breaking

To you I surrender
To you I surrender
To you I surrender
To you I surrender
