

Ain't Backing Down

Wrekonize

It's a beautiful day I let the sun in
I can feel the heat around me everything is humming
Then I notice you can never stop your mouth from running
So I figured I should slow it down and tell you something look

I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
It won't be that type of show
I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
That won't be the way it go
No I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
You know where to find me tho so
I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
Come and find me we can throw
Cuz I ain't backing down

I been watching you slowly
Act like you can own me
But you do not know me no
You gon' think twice now homie
Cuz this ground is holy
Don't step out it's lonely

You been sitting quiet while you lying
Everything about you is false no multiple choice
But I guess that's only right when dolomite
Ain't really got much of a voice
Shit talk on the line then
In reality you back on the pole like a linemen
What a shock you was vibing
Then you hated and basically flipped on a dime
And I'm no bullshitter quitter I'm a man that follows through
Part time role model true
Everything that apostles do
I know you got into the bottle too
Bipolar it's obvious news
I don't know many things in this life
But I know that you're mama shoulda swallowed you

It's a beautiful day I let the sun in
I can feel the heat around me everything is humming
Then I notice you can never stop your mouth from running
So I figured I should slow it down and tell you something look

I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
I ain't backing down
Oh no

I ain't backing down
No I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
You know where to find me tho so
I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
Come and find me we can throw

I been watching you slowly
Act like you can own me
Like I don't really understand
Why you snapping like a rubber band
I kept giving you another chance
Let you grab ahold the upper hand
You kept throwing me the trouble man
I can't trust you on the mother land
Acting like a mother fucker man
What's your problem why you chucking sand
I just wanna kick it on the beach with the fam
Make a few grands
Get a lick like blam
Love this life and I will not stand
For the bitch type moves I will get those banned
Keeping wild so you get this brand
Demon Child yeah the kids quite damned
Speaking foul gonna get you hanged
If you don't disband
I'mma get you canned damn

It's a beautiful day I let the sun in
Then I notice you can never stop your mouth from running
So I figured I should slow it down and tell you something look

I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
It won't be that type of show
I ain't backing down
Oh no
I ain't backing down
Come and find me we can throw
