

At Last

Wrekonize

Spent all that money trying to patch it up
Coming late on bills trying to catch it up
But life keeps calling can't pass it up
Yeah, I'm sorry
I'm sorry
Stuck in my head I don't laugh enough
Trying to fix everything I got a habit of Probably was my fault when you add it up
And I'm sorry

I was trying to break free from my vices
Running from whatever you said the advice is
When I'm insecure I'm not at my nicest
Being right don't feel as good as being righteous
If I could just get out the way
Of myself push doubt away
A big head I was stuck inside
Second guessed and I wasn't right
Backtracked like a dozen times
The world doesn't mind

It keeps spinning like

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last

It keeps spinning like

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last

I woke up today and felt free
So free that I almost flew up off the ground
Any day I breathe no doubt is a gift endowed
I'm so grateful to hear the sound
And I know that the good times won't sustain
No matter what things out here bound to change
But I also know that it can't just rain for days
I got sunshine on the way
I look up to the stars when I lay my head to rest
And think back to the days we left
Had friends check out to early from chasing death
They found out when they traced the steps
This is one of them days when I feel this need to laugh
And take a walk off the beaten path

Got all this life left in me I'm reaching at
It feels good to be free at last
Yeah, free at last

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last

It keeps spinning like

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last

And sometimes I slip
Sometimes I can lose my grip
I'll admit this life's a trip
Grief comes in waves
High tide low tide can change
Don't let that sink the ship
There's too much to lose
Each choice feeling blessed to choose
All the step left in these shoes
All the color why stress the blues
And let fear get the best of you
What's left to do
But keep spinning like

On and on, yeah
When a new day comes it could all be different
On and on, yeah
If life keeps going I'll just keep living it
On and on
Can't hold on to all that past
I'm feeling free at last
I'm feeling free at last
