Sunday climbing high inside of my domain
Not working I'm just trying to find a sky to claim My city's the committee for the finer thangs Why complain we can hydroplane

Living in a city where the people get busy getting busy like it ain't no Thing to pick a dream when you living in a scene where it's difficult to lay low
I been on the lamb trying to give a damn but I can't jam to the silence
M-I-A the land feel another gram hand been crammed full of vibrance
And a tad of the violence jumped in by the parkway pirates See I been ala the kazam trying to slap it to the man and stay a pillar for the silent
What you here for the mileage
A Frequent flyer running for the pilots cockpit to talk some shit you bias
I can freely see and read it in your iris Go an button up your eyelids we here to party up and down for the highest Whether you atheist, a crazy clique, or even for the meek or the pious
They try to roll right by us like we wouldn't come and call the alliance
I try to keep on mine but sometimes ya gotta slide it ain't a perfect scienc e but I'm vibing

Sunday climbing high inside of my domain

Yeah everybody in this bitch running round downtown covered in the powder I been looking for a flight up in my cup I can try and climb out of Chugging since I was a chum and Drugging Trying to swing the wood around like Jim Duggan Something can be full of nothing if you break it down enough and give it all up youngin'
Inhibitions killed with a bit of skill you can even take more hostage Sip lisinopril flipping with the real son of God hanging on crosses Gotta get to cutting these losses finding friends face down in the phosphoru
s It's that Son of a son of a bitch running up into the mix trying to double c ross us
How freaking obnoxious but if you stay alive you can be prosperous
If you slide with the right tide you can flip it now and dive with the walru
Trying to thrive like all us Fitting in with the hoods and the ballers
I try to keep on mine but sometimes ya gotta slide it ain't a perfect solace but it wants us
